

PARTY CELL OF THE FACULTY OF PUBLIC MANAGEMENT– REAL ESTATE THEMATIC ACTIVITY AT RẠCH GẦM – XOÀI MÚT VICTORY HISTORICAL SITE

On the morning of May 31, 2025, the Party Cell of the Faculty of Public Management – Real Estate organized a "Return to the Roots" activity combined with a thematic meeting at the Rạch Gầm – Xoài Mút Victory Historical Site, Chau Thanh District, Tien Giang Province. The event was attended by Comrade Le Trung Dao, Member of the Party Committee's Standing Board – Vice Rector of the University; Comrade Nguyen Thanh Nha, Member of the Party Committee's Standing Board, Party Cell Secretary, Dean of the Faculty of Public Management – Real Estate; together with members of the Party Cell Executive Committee, all Party members, and outstanding individuals from the Faculty.

In front of the solemn memorial monument honoring the Rạch Gầm – Xoài Mút warriors, the Party Cell of the Faculty of Public Management – Real Estate performed a floral and incense offering ceremony, paying tribute to the heroes and recalling the glorious history of the Rạch Gầm – Xoài Mút victory led by General Quang Trung (Nguyen Hue) in 1785.

The Rạch Gầm – Xoài Mút victory in Tien Giang was: “A resistance war against the invading Siamese army, aided by the traitorous feudal lord Nguyen Anh, a struggle to defend national independence... The invaders were guided by Nguyen Anh and supported by reactionary feudal forces from within, especially the large landowners in Gia Dinh. Yet, with the victory at Rạch Gầm – Xoài Mút, the Tay Son army crushed both the invaders and the traitors in a lightning annihilation... It was a great and resounding initial triumph for the people of the South, despite the historical complexities and the betrayal of the domestic feudal clique (Excerpt from the Proceedings of the Scientific Conference commemorating the 200th anniversary of the Rạch Gầm – Xoài Mút victory in Tien Giang, December 1984, with remarks from historian Phan Huy Le.)

The young intellectual generation of the Faculty of Public Management – Real Estate is determined to study diligently, improve their qualifications, and actively contribute to the cause of building and developing a prosperous and beautiful nation.
